Guidance

Move-Secure-Defend

This quick reference guide describes protective actions taken by teachers and staff to keep students safe while executing a lockdown protocol. The Move-Secure-Defend model is an options-based approach.

Guidance

See Tell Now!

2020

If something looks out of place to you, it likely is. Where the safety of our children is concerned it is better safe than sorry. Remember if you see something, Tell someone, Do it Now — SEE-TELL — NOW!

Guidance

Idaho Standard Command Responses for Schools \(ISCRS\)

2020

Developed in a consortium of Law Enforcement, Fire Department, and School personnel, the ISCRS protocols are designed to provide an initial, immediate school response to an imminent situation. With the goal of creating memorable, trainable actions, the protocols are intended to fit within the unique context and the individual community of a school campus.

Guidance

Reunification Documents

2022

These documents support reunification planning for schools and districts in Idaho.

Training Program

Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management \(BTAM\)

2020

Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management (BTAM) is the systematic process of investigating and assessing concerning behaviors. The primary goal of BTAM is to evaluate the difference between making a threat and posing a threat to a school community and then to build a management plan that supports the safety of the entire community.

Report

Rigby Middle School Shooting Post-Incident Review Report

2021

This report captures lessons learned from the Rigby Middle School shooting in May 2021 and makes recommendations for safety and security resources in keeping with the statutory mandate of the Idaho School Safety and Security program.

Training Program

Ten-Minute Tabletop Exercises

These short, scenario-based trainings—all based on actual events that have taken place in Idaho schools—are designed to be completed in 10 minutes and simulate an emergency situation in a low stress environment. They are intended for participants to discuss the scenarios presented and general problems and procedures in the context of response to a specific incident.
